

PATIENT AGREEMENT & CONSENT FORM

860 First Avenue, Suite 6A, King of Prussia, PA 19406 • P. (610) 265.3311 • F. (610) 265.3964

I,
Most risks are related to the position of the nerves under the issue, at the site of the injection, which cannot be determined prior the administration of the anesthetic agent. Although the risks seldom occur they might include loss of sensation of the tongue and lip. If this occurs it is often temporary and normal sensation usually returns. However, in very rare cases the loss of sensation on extend for a longer period and may become permanent. In addition, injecting a foreign substance into the body such as an anesthetic agent may result in an allergic reaction. Allergic reactions to these agents are rare, but may take place. I also understand that individual reactions to treatment cannot be predicted, and that if I experience any unanticipated reactions following the injection(s), I agree to report them to the office as soon as possible. The success of my dental treatment depends upon my cooperation in keeping scheduled appointments, following home care instructions, including oral hygiene and dietary instructions, taking prescribed medication, and reporting to the office of any change in my health status. I acknowledge that no guarantees or assurances have been given, by anyone, as to the results that may be obtained, and I authorize Dr. Goyal, and/or his staff, to perform the treatment needed. PAYMENT POLICY Payment is expected at the time of service. If you have insurance coverage, Allendale Dental will submit claim forms, as a courtesy, while you are expected to pay for any deductible(s), copay(s) or uncovered item(s), when services are provided. As the insurance company holds the contract with you, you acknowledge responsibility for all of the charges. Any amount not paid by insurance is your responsibility, And, any balance that is past 30 days will have a 1% monthly finance charge added to it. We accept payment by: (Please circle your preferred method of payment below) Cash Check Debit Card Credit Card EMERGENCY AFTER HOURS CARE If you have a dental emergency, and you have called our office
Most risks are related to the position of the nerves under the issue, at the site of the injection, which cannot be determined prior the administration of the anesthetic agent. Although the risks seldom occur they might include loss of sensation of the tongue and lip. If this occurs it is often temporary and normal sensation usually returns. However, in very rare cases the loss of sensation ma extend for a longer period and may become permanent. In addition, injecting a foreign substance into the body such as an anesthetic agent may result in an allergic reaction. Allergic reactions to these agents are rare, but may take place. I also understand that individual reactions to treatment cannot be predicted, and that if I experience any unanticipated reactions following the injection(s), I agree to report them to the office as soon as possible. The success of my dental treatment depends upon my cooperation in keeping scheduled appointments, following home care instructions, including oral hygiene and dietary instructions, taking prescribed medication, and reporting to the office of any change in my health status. I acknowledge that no guarantees or assurances have been given, by anyone, as to the results that may be obtained, and I authorize Dr. Goyal, and/or his staff, to perform the treatment needed. PAYMENT POLICY Payment is expected at the time of service. If you have insurance coverage, Allendale Dental will submit claim forms, as a courtesy, while you are expected to pay for any deductible(s), co-pay(s) or uncovered item(s), when services are provided. As the insurance company holds the contract with you, you acknowledge responsibility for all of the charges. Any amount not paid by insurance is your responsibility. And, any balance that is past 30 days will have a 1% monthly finance charge added to it. We accept payment by: (Please circle your preferred method of payment below) Cash Check Debit Card Credit Card EMERGENCY AFTER HOURS CARE If you have a dental emergency, and you have called our office
Most risks are related to the position of the nerves under the tissue, at the site of the injection, which cannot be determined prior the administration of the anesthetic agent. Although the risks seldom occur they might include loss of sensation of the tongue and inclined for a longer period and may become permanent. In addition, injecting a foreign substance into the body such as an anesthetic agent may result in an allergic reaction. Allergic reactions to these agents are rare, but may take place. I also understand that individual reactions to treatment cannot be predicted, and that if I experience any unanticipated reactions following the injection(s), I agree to report them to the office as soon as possible. The success of my dental treatment depends upon my cooperation in keeping scheduled appointments, following home care instructions, including oral hygiene and dietary instructions, taking prescribed medication, and reporting to the office of any change in my health status. I acknowledge that no guarantees or assurances have been given, by anyone, as to the results that may be obtained, and I authorize Dr. Goyal, and/or his staff, to perform the treatment needed. PAYMENT POLICY Payment is expected at the time of service. If you have insurance coverage, Allendale Dental will submit claim forms, as a courtesy, while you are expected to pay for any deductible(s), co-pay(s) or uncovered item(s), when services are provided. As the insurance company holds the contract with you, you acknowledge responsibility for all of the charges. Any amount not paid by insurance is your responsibility. And, any balance that is past 30 days will have a 1% monthly finance charge added to it. We accept payment by: (Please circle your preferred method of payment below) Cash Check Debit Card Credit Card EMERGENCY AFTER HOURS CARE If you have a dental emergency, and you have called our office after hours, leave a message along with a working phone number where you can be reached. Please disable your caller ID block so t
Most risks are related to the position of the nerves under the tissue, at the site of the injection, which cannot be determined prior to the administration of the anesthetic agent. Although the risks seldom occur they might include loss of sensation of the tongue and injection of the control of the contro
Most risks are related to the position of the nerves under the tissue, at the site of the injection, which cannot be determined prior the administration of the anesthetic agent. Although the risks seldom occur they might include loss of sensation of the tongue and lip. If this occurs it is often temporary and normal sensation usually returns. However, in very rare cases the loss of sensation may extend for a longer period and may become permanent. In addition, injecting a foreign substance into the body such as an anesthetic agent may result in an allergic reaction. Allergic reactions to these agents are rare, but may take place. I also understand that individual reactions to treatment cannot be predicted, and that if I experience any unanticipated reactions following the injection(s), I agree to report them to the office as soon as possible. The success of my dental treatment depends upon my cooperation in keeping scheduled appointments, following home care instructions, including oral hygiene and dietary instructions, taking prescribed medication, and reporting to the office of any change in my health status. I acknowledge that no guarantees or assurances have been given, by anyone, as to the results that may be obtained, and I authorize Dr. Goyal, and/or his staff, to perform the treatment needed. PAYMENT POLICY Payment is expected at the time of service. If you have insurance coverage, Allendale Dental will submit claim forms, as a courtesy, while you are expected to pay for any deductible(s), co-pay(s) or uncovered item(s), when services are provided. As the insurance company holds the contract with you, you acknowledge responsibility for all of the charges. Any amount not paid by insurance is your responsibility. And, any balance that is past 30 days will have a 1% monthly finance charge added to it. We accept payment by: (Please circle your preferred method of payment below)
Most risks are related to the position of the nerves under the tissue, at the site of the injection, which cannot be determined prior the administration of the anesthetic agent. Although the risks seldom occur they might include loss of sensation of the tongue and lip. If this occurs it is often temporary and normal sensation usually returns. However, in very rare cases the loss of sensation may extend for a longer period and may become permanent. In addition, injecting a foreign substance into the body such as an anesthetic agent may result in an allergic reaction. Allergic reactions to these agents are rare, but may take place. I also understand that individual reactions to treatment cannot be predicted, and that if I experience any unanticipated reactions following the injection(s), I agree to report them to the office as soon as possible. The success of my dental treatment depends upon my cooperation in keeping scheduled appointments, following home care instructions, including oral hygiene and dietary instructions, taking prescribed medication, and reporting to the office of any change in my health status. I acknowledge that no guarantees or assurances have been given, by anyone, as to the results that may be obtained, and I authorize Dr. Goyal, and/or his staff, to perform the treatment needed. PAYMENT POLICY Payment is expected at the time of service. If you have insurance coverage, Allendale Dental will submit claim forms, as a courtesy, while you are expected to pay for any deductible(s), co-pay(s) or uncovered item(s), when services are provided. As the insurance company holds the contract with you, you acknowledge responsibility for all of the charges. Any amount not paid by insurance is your responsibility. And, any balance that is past 30 days will have a 1% monthly finance charge added to it. We accept payment by: (Please circle your preferred method of payment below)
Most risks are related to the position of the nerves under the tissue, at the site of the injection, which cannot be determined prior to the administration of the anesthetic agent. Although the risks seldom occur they might include loss of sensation of the tongue and lip. If this occurs it is often temporary and normal sensation usually returns. However, in very rare cases the loss of sensation may extend for a longer period and may become permanent. In addition, injecting a foreign substance into the body such as an anesthetic agent may result in an allergic reaction. Allergic reactions to these agents are rare, but may take place. I also understand that individual reactions to treatment cannot be predicted, and that if I experience any unanticipated reactions following the injection(s), I agree to report them to the office as soon as possible. The success of my dental treatment depends upon my cooperation in keeping scheduled appointments, following home care instructions, including oral hygiene and dietary instructions, taking prescribed medication, and reporting to the office of any change in my health status. I acknowledge that no guarantees or assurances have been given, by anyone, as to the results that may be obtained, and I authorize Dr. Goyal, and/or his staff, to perform the treatment needed. PAYMENT POLICY Payment is expected at the time of service. If you have insurance coverage, Allendale Dental will submit claim forms, as a courtesy, while you are expected to pay for any deductible(s), co-pay(s) or uncovered item(s), when services are provided. As the insurance company holds the contract with you, you acknowledge responsibility for all of the charges. Any amount not paid by insurance is your responsibility. And, any balance that is past 30 days will have a 1% monthly finance charge added to it.
Most risks are related to the position of the nerves under the tissue, at the site of the injection, which cannot be determined prior the administration of the anesthetic agent. Although the risks seldom occur they might include loss of sensation of the tongue and lip. If this occurs it is often temporary and normal sensation usually returns. However, in very rare cases the loss of sensation may extend for a longer period and may become permanent. In addition, injecting a foreign substance into the body such as an anesthetic agent may result in an allergic reaction. Allergic reactions to these agents are rare, but may take place. I also understand that individual reactions to treatment cannot be predicted, and that if I experience any unanticipated reactions following the injection(s), I agree to report them to the office as soon as possible. The success of my dental treatment depends upon my cooperation in keeping scheduled appointments, following home care instructions, including oral hygiene and dietary instructions, taking prescribed medication, and reporting to the office of any change in my health status. I acknowledge that no guarantees or assurances have been given, by anyone, as to the results that may be obtained, and I authorize Dr. Goyal, and/or his staff, to perform the treatment needed. PAYMENT POLICY Payment is expected at the time of service. If you have insurance coverage, Allendale Dental will submit claim forms, as a courtesy, while you are expected to pay for any deductible(s), co-pay(s) or uncovered item(s), when services are provided. As the insurance company holds the contract with you, you acknowledge responsibility for all of the charges. Any amount not paid by insurance is your responsibility. And, any balance that is past 30 days will have a 1% monthly finance
Most risks are related to the position of the nerves under the tissue, at the site of the injection, which cannot be determined prior to the administration of the anesthetic agent. Although the risks seldom occur they might include loss of sensation of the tongue and lip. If this occurs it is often temporary and normal sensation usually returns. However, in very rare cases the loss of sensation may extend for a longer period and may become permanent. In addition, injecting a foreign substance into the body such as an anesthetic agent may result in an allergic reaction. Allergic reactions to these agents are rare, but may take place. I also understand that individual reactions to treatment cannot be predicted, and that if I experience any unanticipated reactions following the injection(s), I agree to report them to the office as soon as possible. The success of my dental treatment depends upon my cooperation in keeping scheduled appointments, following home care instructions, including oral hygiene and dietary instructions, taking prescribed medication, and reporting to the office of any change in my health status. I acknowledge that no guarantees or assurances have been given, by anyone, as to the results that may be obtained, and I authorize Dr. Goyal, and/or his staff, to perform the treatment needed. PAYMENT POLICY Payment is expected at the time of service. If you have insurance coverage, Allendale Dental will submit claim forms, as a courtesy, while you are expected to pay for any deductible(s), co-pay(s) or uncovered item(s), when services are provided.
Most risks are related to the position of the nerves under the tissue, at the site of the injection, which cannot be determined prior to the administration of the anesthetic agent. Although the risks seldom occur they might include loss of sensation of the tongue and lip. If this occurs it is often temporary and normal sensation usually returns. However, in very rare cases the loss of sensation may extend for a longer period and may become permanent. In addition, injecting a foreign substance into the body such as an anesthetic agent may result in an allergic reaction. Allergic reactions to these agents are rare, but may take place. I also understand that individual reactions to treatment cannot be predicted, and that if I experience any unanticipated reactions following the injection(s), I agree to report them to the office as soon as possible. The success of my dental treatment depends upon my cooperation in keeping scheduled appointments, following home care instructions, including oral hygiene and dietary instructions, taking prescribed medication, and reporting to the office of any change in my health status. I acknowledge that no guarantees or assurances have been given, by anyone, as to the results that may be obtained, and I authorize Dr. Goyal, and/or his staff, to perform the treatment needed.
Most risks are related to the position of the nerves under the tissue, at the site of the injection, which cannot be determined prior the administration of the anesthetic agent. Although the risks seldom occur they might include loss of sensation of the tongue and lip. If this occurs it is often temporary and normal sensation usually returns. However, in very rare cases the loss of sensation may extend for a longer period and may become permanent. In addition, injecting a foreign substance into the body such as an anesthetic agent may result in an allergic reaction. Allergic reactions to these agents are rare, but may take place. I also understand that individual reactions to treatment cannot be predicted, and that if I experience any unanticipated reactions following the injection(s), I agree to report them to the office as soon as possible. The success of my dental treatment depends upon my cooperation in keeping scheduled appointments, following home care instructions, including oral hygiene and dietary instructions, taking prescribed medication, and reporting to the office of any change in my health status. I acknowledge that no guarantees or assurances have been given, by anyone, as to the results that may be obtained, and I
Most risks are related to the position of the nerves under the tissue, at the site of the injection, which cannot be determined prior the administration of the anesthetic agent. Although the risks seldom occur they might include loss of sensation of the tongue and lip. If this occurs it is often temporary and normal sensation usually returns. However, in very rare cases the loss of sensation may extend for a longer period and may become permanent. In addition, injecting a foreign substance into the body such as an anesthetic agent may result in an allergic reaction. Allergic reactions to these agents are rare, but may take place. I also understand that individual reactions to treatment cannot be predicted, and that if I experience any unanticipated reactions following the injection(s), I agree to report them to the office as soon as possible. The success of my dental treatment depends upon my cooperation in keeping scheduled appointments, following home care instructions, including oral hygiene and dietary instructions, taking prescribed medication, and reporting to the office of any
Most risks are related to the position of the nerves under the tissue, at the site of the injection, which cannot be determined prior to the administration of the anesthetic agent. Although the risks seldom occur they might include loss of sensation of the tongue and lip. If this occurs it is often temporary and normal sensation usually returns. However, in very rare cases the loss of sensation may extend for a longer period and may become permanent. In addition, injecting a foreign substance into the body such as an anesthetic agent may result in an allergic reaction. Allergic reactions to these agents are rare, but may take place. I also understand that individual reactions to treatment cannot be predicted, and that if I experience any unanticipated reactions
Most risks are related to the position of the nerves under the tissue, at the site of the injection, which cannot be determined prior the administration of the anesthetic agent. Although the risks seldom occur they might include loss of sensation of the tongue and lip. If this occurs it is often temporary and normal sensation usually returns. However, in very rare cases the loss of sensation may extend for a longer period and may become permanent. In addition, injecting a foreign substance into the body such as an